Cultural Corner

History of National Make a Difference Day

Originally created in 1992 by USA Weekend magazine, National Make a Difference Day has seen a great deal of support from various organizations throughout the years and most recently has been transferred over to USA Today as its primary sponsor and organizer. USA Today provides a central location for people to gather their information and report what they're doing locally to Make a Difference. Since its creation National Make a Difference Day has helped to encourage thousands of people across the nation to start making an actual difference in the world. Contributions to making the world a better place have ranged from gathering stuffed bears for firefighters to give to injured and frightened children, to organizing relief efforts for victims of natural catastrophes like Hurricane Sandy. Overall National Make a Difference Day has spurred people to make a difference in themselves, and the world.

Positivity Project

This week we are learning and celebrating

Creativity

You come up with new and original ways to think about and do things.

"There is no innovation and creativity without failure."

-Brene Brown
